PETERSBURG, Va., March 29.—More than 300 visiting Knights of Columbus from Richmond, Norfolk, Portsmouth, Newport News, Lynchburg, Roanoke and Alexandria were the guests of the Petersburg council here today in honor of the conferring of the third degree on forty candidates, twenty-five of whom were from Petersburg. Among the candidates from Richmond were Rev. Fathers Glisener and Hare. The secret ceremonies took place at Odd Fellows' Hall, beginning about 3 o'clock this afternoon and lasting more than three hours. The degree was conferred by the District Deputy Supreme Knight, Dr. E. A. Gorman of Alexandria, who was assisted by the following degree officers from Washington, D. C.: Edward Keove, J. E. Babin, Robert Doyle, L. V. Violette, J. McGuire and Wm. Callahan. More than 100 members of the Richmond council were present, and the Norfolk delegation came in an special car, the large numbers of visitors wearing their red badges giving the streets a gala appearance.

Splendid Service.
St. Joseph's Catholic Church was filled by a big congregation at the services to-night, when the Gregorian vespers were beautifully sung by a large choir of the Knights of Columbus from Richmond, with Miss Nina Randolph organist. As the Petersburg council accompanied by many of the visiting Knights and led by Dr. J. M. Burke and Captain James M. Gallagher, marched into the church, the choir sang, "Onward, Christian Soldiers," as a procession.

The "Holy God" was rendered as a procession. The high congregation heard with rapt attention an impressive sermon by Rev. Father Ingelgen, a missionary priest attached to the Richmond diocese, who preached on the text, "What shall it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

TAG DAY

How Richmond Looked to William Byrd Nearly 200 Years Ago

This picture shows a diagram or map of the town of Richmond drawn in 1737 by William Byrd. The original, which, though somewhat effaced by age, is fairly well preserved, is highly valued for its antiquity by Mr. E. D. Quarles, of this city, in whose family it has been for many generations. Mr. Quarles found the map among the papers of his father upon the latter's death, and he has traced its ownership back to Francis West, one of his ancestors, whose name appears upon it as one of the original lot-holders.

Lots 97 and 98 in the list of those taken up, marked "The Church," are the ones on which old St. John's stands. The map is of peculiar interest to those who care to study the early topography of Richmond. On one corner of the original is an inscription made many years ago, declaring that the map and the list of names on the side are in the handwriting of William Byrd, an asseveration that this fact can be proved beyond all question.

BULLETS PUT END TO NEGRO FROLIC

Gunplay Enlivens School Commencement, and One Negro Is Shot.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MEHERIN, Va., March 29.—At a negro school commencement near here yesterday evening, Jim Bailey was shot in the neck.

The ball took an upward course and lodged in the cheek. The shot was fired by Randolph Venable, a colored man, who made his escape.

Several of the negroes were engaged in the difficulty, and several pistols were displayed, but no other shots were fired. The dispute arose over a woman, and was aggravated by whiskey. The negro was taken to Richmond by Dr. H. O. Forbes, where the ball will be extracted. The excitement was brought to an abrupt end with every one in a high state of excitement. Several negroes came here and had warrants issued for their arrest. The participants and officers left immediately to serve them. It is thought Bailey will recover.

WANTS NEW CUSTOMHOUSE

Wilmington Asks Congress to Approve $400,000 For Public Building.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILMINGTON, N. C., March 29.—Wilmington has made a strong bid on Congress this year for a new custom house, the present structure being a most dilapidated building, both in appearance and accommodation, and has bright prospects of getting up a proposition for such an object. It is said, "A bill carrying with it an appropriation of $400,000 for a new custom house has passed the Senate and is now in the House. In order to see the real need information was recently here yesterday the Chairman Bartholdt, of Missouri, head of the House Public Buildings and Grounds Committee, and the entire subcommittee, for this district of the House Public Buildings and Grounds Committee, will pay an official visit to Wilmington in May. These Congressmen will look into the situation, and while here Congressman Bartholdt will likely address the North Carolina Peace Conference.

STRIKE AT NEWBERN

Reduction of 25 Per Cent. in Wages at Iron Works Caused Men to Walk Out.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWBERN, N. C., March 29.—The Newbern Iron Works, the largest machine and foundry shops in this section, have a strike on hand. Some time ago the managers announced a reduction in wages of 25 per cent. on and after March 1st, on account of the general financial conditions and the unsettled situation of the country. Yesterday morning, when the men reported for work, they were informed that they would work at the reduced wages. Twenty-three men refused to accept the reduced wages and left at once, leaving only four men at work in the whole establishment, and they members of the firm. Just what the outcome of the affair will be remains to be seen, but the firm seems to think it can get men at the reduced wages. The men claim that the company has at the time it can do at the old prices, that the cost of living is very high, and that there is no necessity of any reduction whatever.

Many Criminal Cases.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILMINGTON, N. C., March 29.—To-morrow a one-week term of the higher court for this county will convene, and over 150 cases will be presented. So it will be a busy week, but with no likelihood of the large docket being cleared. Among the cases are eight for capital crimes, which includes a charge of murder against two young white men, E. T. Cook and Jesse Higgins, whom it is alleged, with one L. M. Bryant, another white man, but who is at liberty, killed a negro man at the latter's home early one morning. Then there is a case of arson against a negro woman, Mary McDaniel, and whose defense will likely be insanity, as the woman has been traveling since being in jail, and an interesting case of murder against a negro, Alex. Mallard, who was indicted by a grand jury after he had been exonerated by a coroner's jury. All the other defendants in the capital cases are negroes and murder is the only charge. For the capture of the white man, L. M. Bryant, there is a standing reward of $200, half of which is offered by the State of North Carolina.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

AYCOCK TO SPEAK IN WILMINGTON ON TEMPERANCE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILMINGTON, N. C., March 29.—The temperance forces in Wilmington are still hard at work in the campaign, although the election is but two months off. They are not letting a fine slip by. Another big rally for prohibition has been arranged for Wednesday, April 1, at the Academy of Music, the largest building in the city. The speaker will be no less distinguished person than ex-Governor Charles B. Aycock, of North Carolina, and the anti-saloon folks are counting on a big and rousing rally.

RIGHT FOOD

How the Baby was Saved.

"When our first baby came it was soon apparent that his mother could not nurse him, and it became necessary to feed him artificial food. We tried everything recommended by other physicians in succession. We experimented with nearly every artificial food, but could barely keep the baby alive, and at the age of five months he weighed no more than at birth. When eight months old he had gained very little, and his stomach and bowels were in such a condition that we despaired of raising him. A chance acquaintance recommended Grape-Nuts, and we commenced feeding him on that until after we had him on Grape-Nuts. Until that time he was weak and helpless, and cried nearly all the time. Now he is a strong, bright, rosy-cheeked child of 3½ years." Name given by Dr. J. C. B. Battle, Crook, Mich. Road, "The Road to Wellville," in Nicks. "There's a Reason."

LATE DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE.

LONDON, March 29.—The remains of the Duke of Devonshire, who died at Cannes March 24th, were laid at rest yesterday beside the body of his father in the little church at Edinor, near Chatsworth. The funeral service was attended by representatives of the King, Edward and Queen Alexandra, Emperor William and the Prince and Princess of Wales.
